MCA Election 1444 Hijri (2022 – 2023) Announcement

Respected MCA Members:

We pray to Allah (swt) this letter finds you in good health and high Islamic spirits.

The MCA Elections Committee, by majority decision, has decided to continue to conduct and hold exclusively online voting for the upcoming MCA Election 1444 Hijri (2022-2023). All members will be considered to be absentees in this year's election and will only be able to vote online.

The MCA Elections will take place on Wednesday, August 24 and Thursday, August 25.

- Online voting:

- Begin on August 24 at 6:00AM and end on August 25 at 6:00PM

To ensure that all MCA members can vote via an online ballot, all individual members must have a current, valid, unique email as each ballot will only be sent to the unique email associated with each individual member. Also, members are encouraged to not opt out of receiving emails from MCA as it will stop them from receiving important email reminders related to elections.

In advance of the elections and as soon as possible members are urged to verify and update their phone number on the MCA Membership page and to contact the MCA Membership Committee at membership@mcabayarea.org to verify and/or provide a current, valid, unique email for each member.

Specifically, if a member previously signed up for family membership for 2 or more people, it is imperative that this category of members email membership@mcabayarea.org and provide current, valid, unique email addresses for each family member.
